UPDATE ON LESSON PLANS AND A REMINDER TO VOTE TOMORROW!

CCAFT members are being asked to provide more detailed lesson plans this year. Here is a brief response from the union with more information to follow.

Teachers are being asked to do excessive paper work around lesson plans constituting "busy work" for educators. Here is the law.

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS

Teachers are being burdened by needless paperwork around lesson plans. Here is the law-- Texas Education Code- Section 11.164. Restricting Written Information

11.164. (6) A unit or weekly lesson plan that outlines, in a brief and general manner, the information to be presented during each period at the secondary level or in each subject or topic at the elementary level.

If your principal or district is asking for more than what is expressed in state law, please let us know.

Election News 2014-- Congrats to CCAFT members! Our members turned out strong during early voting, well above the state average. If you did not vote during early voting, please vote on election day, tomorrow, November 4, 2014. Polls are open from 7:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. Every vote counts and your input will make the difference! Visit our website at www.ccaft.org for election information. Call 361-442-9046 if you need help finding your polling site.
